Dear Michael:

Please don't misunderstand my last letter. While I, too, believe that HWA was a false prophet, all I was trying to say, is that there is no way the WCG is going to come out and "completely" denounce him, as you would like them to do. They want to keep their church going, and since they have some members that are still clinging to HWA and some that aren't, they are between a rock and a hard place, trying to placate both kinds of members.

While Pasadena has already denounced the doctrines HWA taught (which right there tells the world that if the doctrines were false, so was HWA), I don't think they're going to do much more than that. Your recent letter seems to indicate that you think I can do something to make the Administration do more. I'm sorry, but I don't have that kind of influence with them.

In the meantime, all I suggest to you, is that you continue to stand up for what you believe. I do not believe you are the "bad guy". You need to go forward in your new life now, resting in what you know is the truth. That's about all you can do now. If you are seeking more satisfaction from Pasadena, you're probably not going to get it. I'm sorry.

Sincerely in Christ,

Janis Hutchinson
